Re: Engagement for Lease Dispute Advisory

Dear Ms. Chavez:

This letter confirms that Bramblewood Legal PLLC has been engaged by Miles, Alexander and Mccoy to advise on the lease dispute now pending with respect to the premises occupied by Miles, Alexander and Mccoy. We are grateful for the confidence this engagement reflects, and we set out below, as is our practice, exactly what we will do, who will do it, and on what terms.

Our scope is advisory. We will review the lease, its amendments, and the correspondence exchanged between the parties; examine the parcel records and recorded filings bearing on the disputed provisions; assess the positions available to you; and prepare such notices, responses, and settlement documentation as the matter requires. Work beyond this scope, including any court proceeding, will be undertaken only under a written amendment to this letter signed by both of us. An engagement that states its limits plainly at the outset tends to keep them.

Nicholas Cox, Senior Attorney, will lead the matter. Ashley Reese, Attorney, will conduct the analysis and prepare the periodic status reports to your office. Brendan Walls, Paralegal, will maintain the matter file and the record of filings. Consistent with the firm's standing access rules, the client folder for this matter will be readable by this team and by me, and by no one else at the firm.

Our fee for the engagement is a fixed fee of $37,500, covering the scope described above. Recording charges and other third-party costs are not included and will be billed to you as incurred, with supporting documentation. Work will commence on July 3, 2018, and we expect the engagement to run approximately five months.

If these terms match your understanding, please sign where indicated below and return one executed copy to my attention. Questions at any point in the matter are welcome; you will find we answer them plainly. We look forward to the work.
